

Shakti Milan Samaj create platform to share experience

December 28, 2016 -News Published –EDUCATION RAYS.COM

December-28, 2016/Kathmandu

Shakti Milan Samaj a renowned NGO working in the sector of HIV and aids create a plat form to share the real experience of the PLHA and performed live acting in the stage by the artists of Mandala Theater at Universal cafe , Sokedhara today.

The participant shares their own experience of life and the actors acted live creating the possible scenes at the moments. Goma Rai, Goma Karki and other participants share their experience at the program.

The participants expressed their feelings and shown a great determination to move ahead fighting with the situation.

The participants burst in to tears after they saw the live performance of the artist on their stories.